NEW YORK., Nov. 8.—Money—Easy 14@
2c; closed at 1 per cent offered.

Prime paper—5@6.

Sterling Bills—Bankers' bills quiet at 4 7/8; demand, 4 8/4.

Governments—Firm.

Stocks—In the early hours of business on the stock exchange to-day the market was strong and on the advance. Prices rose 1 to 1 1/2 per cent, Missouri Pacific, Illinois Central, Grangers and Trunk line shares being the most prominent. After 1 o'clock there was a change in the temperature of speculation and the bears made a drive against the whole list.
Grangers, Trunk lines, Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific and Pacific Mail were the greatest sufferers. The market left off weak, and compared to last night's closing prices are 1 to 2 per cent lower, except for Canada Southern, Missouri Pacific, Denver, Texas & Pacific and Reading, which are 1 to 2 per cent higher.
